

FATAL SHOOTING BY COAST GUARD IS UNDER PROBE

Shots Fired in Taking of Suspected Lake Liquor Runner

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Federal and county officials today were investigating a fatal shooting by the Coast Guard.

When the cabin cruiser Bug was captured in Lake Ontario, near the mouth of the Niagara River, yesterday Carl Anderson, 38, of Lewiston, one of the Bug crew, was shot to death and Edmund Sahr, 24, of Niagara Falls, the other member, seriously wounded.

Coast Guardsmen assert the shooting was justified. They said the boat a suspected run runner, failed to heave-to when ordered.

Last spring the fatal shooting of Jacob D. Hanson occurred only a short distance from the scene of yesterday's fatality. Hanson, Secretary of Niagara Falls Lodge of Elks, was mortally wounded while driving his automobile up Lewiston Hill in Niagara county. He was suspected by coast guardsmen at the time of running rum, but no liquor was found in his car and acquaintances later cleared his name of all suspicion.

The Bug lay on the beach near Lewiston today, bullet holes in it bearing witness of Coast Guardsmen marksmanship. The boat was detected running without lights after the CG-2364, a federal chaser, had been ordered to watch out for it. Reports had been received that it had been fetching beer and ale from Canada.

A machine gun raked it with bullets and when finally it was boarded, Anderson was found lifeless and his companion suffering from wounds from which blood flowed freely. There was no liquor aboard, but from the pockets of the dead man according to the guardsmen, were taken clearance papers for ale and a bill of lading.

Coolidge Resting Over the Week End

Swannanoa Club, near Waynesboro, Va., Nov. 30.—(AP)—After an active Thanksgiving, President and Mrs. Coolidge settled down today to get the most out of the rest and recreation that their country residence at Swannanoa affords.

Neither arranged for any particular engagements today or tomorrow. While the President engages in some clay pigeon shooting, Mrs. Coolidge looked forward to enjoying the pleasant walks which an attractive estate makes possible.

There was the hope by Mr. Coolidge, moreover, that he might find some quiet shooting during his stay here.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge returned to Swannanoa last evening for Thanksgiving dinner after a day in Charlottesville where they attended church services, had luncheon with Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia, and watched a quarter of the Virginia-NC football game.

In Charlottesville the Coolidges were greeted by Governor Byrd of Virginia, Governor McLean of North Carolina and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. Later in the day, Governors Byrd and McLean paid a return call at Swannanoa.

Chicago Advances in Waterway Shipping

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Chicago made a bid for first place in American waterway shipping today with an announcement of the Association of Commerce that the Panama Canal handled less water-borne traffic in 1927 and 1928 than metropolitan Chicago.

The Chicago district was credited with clearings of 27,362,291 tons for the fiscal year ending June 1, 1928, against 27,230,769 tons for the Panama Canal during the same period.

The Calumet Harbor and River area showed the greatest shipping activity, with 11,534,320 tons recorded. Other Chicago district tonnages included Gary and Buffalo Harbor, 6,777,673; Chicago Harbor and river, 2,177,370; the Drainage Canal 915,000; and Waukegan Harbor and other waterways 150,000.

Translated into terms of freight car loadings, the association interpreted the water-borne commerce of the Chicago district as 2998 car loads a day.

LEE COUNTY MEN ATTEND FEDERAL LAND BANK MEET

District Meeting is Sought for Dixon During Coming Year

At a meeting attended by about 100 representatives of County National Farm Loan Associations throughout Central and Northern Illinois, Lee County was represented by Maj. A. T. Tourtellott, L. S. Griffith and F. H. Delhotel. The meeting was held at the Jefferson Hotel, Peoria, on November 27 and 28. A number of the officers of the Federal Land Bank at St. Louis were in attendance and added materially to the program which was largely on farm financing.

Probably the outstanding talk of the convention was given by H. Paul Bestor, President of the Federal Land Bank. "In spite of the deflation period of ten years," said Bestor, "the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis has forged steadily ahead, and last year was the only one of twelve such banks to show an increase in loans made over the previous year. The standing of the bank has accordingly strengthened and if the present condition can continue and be still further advanced we will be in shape to help in farm financing still further. If it were not for our system of loaning interest would be much higher than 5% on farm loans. The farmer just now has the distinction of being able to get money at cheaper rates than industry for the first time in many years."

Griffith 1929 Chairman. L. S. Griffith, Secretary-Treasurer of the Lee County National Farm Loan Association, was chosen as chairman for the 1929 conference to be held next fall. Maj. Tourtellott extended an invitation to Dixon to hold the next convention in Dixon and an effort will be made to bring the meeting to Lee County.

MURDER FARM'S OWNER CONFESSES ONE KILLING

Northcott Admits Murder of Youth and Burying Body

Bakersfield, Calif., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Deputy District Attorney Earle Redwine of Riverside county this morning announced that Gordon Stewart Northcott had made a complete confession of the slaying of an unidentified Mexican youth on the Northcott ranch, near Riverside.

Northcott was said to have told the officers that Sanford Clark, his 15-year-old nephew and principal accuser, aided him in the murder. He then told how he had burned the head at the ranch and had taken the body to Puente, Cal., where he buried it. Northcott previously admitted mistreating the Mexican youth.

"I am happy, now that I have told it," Northcott was quoted as having said. The confession came by degrees as officers were returning Northcott from British Columbia, where he captured several months ago. His first admission, made late yesterday, was that he had buried the head of the youth at the ranch and buried the body at Puente, Cal., but he declined to say who killed the boy.

Nothing further. Although his captors grilled him thoroughly they failed to shake from him any admission that he slew three other youths named in murder indictments returned against him and Mrs. Sarah Louisa Northcott, who is said to be his mother. Mrs. Northcott is being held in Calgary, Alberta, pending extradition.

Northcott indicated that he had knowledge of the existence of the other three boys named as his victims: Walter Collins of Los Angeles, and Louis and Nelson Winslow of Pomona, all of whom disappeared many months ago. The "ape man," as he has been called by his relatives, told the officers that he feared Collins never would return alive, but he felt that the Winslow boys were safe.

It was the revelation of young Clark, who told authorities that the Northcott ranch in Riverside county was a "murder farm," that led to Northcott's arrest.

Customs Officials Accused of Graft

Detroit, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Eleven hyphen patrol inspectors were arrested today by special customs agents on charges involving conspiracy to assist in smuggling liquor into the United States and accepting bribes from bootleggers.

The arrests, custo msofficials said, are the result of a sweeping investigation of eight months by undercover agents into alleged graft and corruption among inspectors in the Detroit area. Arrest of additional inspectors on similar charges is expected.

Those under arrest are: Alfred LaChace, Russell H. Brown, Everett W. Harbut, James Mack, Shell Miller, Goldie E. Slater, Lamar H. Smith, William C. O'Rourke and Theodore Telfer.

All but O'Rourke were taken into custody at the patrol base, were stripped of their weapons, badges and credentials and taken before John F. Watkins, U. S. District Attorney, who said he is preparing warrants. O'Rourke was arrested at his home.

A general "shake-up" in prohibition forces in the Detroit area was initiated at a conference last week in Washington of Department heads. It was said at the time that conditions in the Detroit district were unsatisfactory.

Carey D. Ferguson, Collector of Customs, said the investigation and arrests were ordered from Washington. Watkins said a wholesale house cleaning in the service was planned.

Three Vessels Standing by to Rescue Crew of Doomed Ship

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Fears regarding the safety of the crew of the British freighter, Chief Maquilla, in distress 2,000 miles west of here in the Pacific ocean, were removed today when the Canadian-American Shipping Company, owners of the craft, was advised that the Japanese freighter, Montreal Maru, was alongside and the British freighter Atlantic City and the Japanese steamer Yogen Maru were standing by.

Seattle, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Japanese steamer Montreal Maru, reported by wireless at 1:30 A. M. Pacific time today that she was 50 miles from the distressed British freighter Chief Maquilla, which was slowly sinking in mid-Pacific. The Montreal Maru asked the Chief Maquilla to send up blue rockets, adding that she would arrive alongside about 4 A. M.

The Chief Maquilla, which first sent SOS calls shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning, apparently was about 2,000 miles west of the Canadian coast, or about half way across the Pacific, and slightly south of the Aleutian Islands.

The steamship Atlantic City, another of the seven vessels which rushed to the aid of the Chief Maquilla, reported that it would arrive at the scene at 9 A. M. Pacific time.

With eight British officers and a crew of 32 Chinese, the Chief Maquilla, a 9,500-ton craft, left British Columbia, ports November 17 for Shanghai. She carried no passengers.

Reports last night were that the Chief Maquilla was listing 15 degrees in her engine room, her deck load of lumber washed away, starboard bunker hatches stove in and her starboard lifeboats gone.

Forecasts Mergers of Power Systems

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Continued consolidation of electric power systems, not necessarily accompanied by extension of any single group's control, was forecast by Martin J. Foley, president of the Middle West Utilities Company, in a speech today before the Advertising Club of New York.

"The interconnection of adjacent properties," Mr. Foley said, "should and will be continued so that every dollar invested may be worked to the limit in the public's interest. For purposes of economical operation it is quite possible that the next development of the electric industry should be the consolidation of some of the smaller existing operating companies in a state into one large operating company, irrespective of where the ownership and control of the present operating companies might rest."

"As long as the industry is properly regulated by state commissions, such a procedure could result in public benefit."

NEPTUNE GREETES PRESIDENT-ELECT AT EQUATOR TODAY

However Ceremony Was Not New to Hoover, Often Shellback

BY JAMES L. WEST

Associated Press Staff Writer
U. S. S. Maryland, enroute to Guayaquil, Ecuador, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rising from the sea with his royal coat King Neptune today took charge of this goodwill ship as it crossed the Equator. His trusted shellbacks—those who have crossed the Equator before—were with him to initiate pollywogs—those who haven't—into the mystery of his realm.

President-elect Hoover, shellback of shellbacks, who was crossing the equator for the fifteenth time, with Mrs. Hoover and Ambassador Fletcher, who has witnessed many an initiation, watched the ceremony from a special platform built on a forward turret. Allan Hoover, son of the President-elect, was below them with 33 landlubbers of the goodwill party who were waiting their turn with 750 officers and sailors who had received warnings to appear before the royal court and receive sentence and punishment.

"Queen" Also Present

King Neptune was accompanied aboard by Queen Amphitrite, the royal baby and ladies and gentlemen of the court, all in beautiful court dress with flowing robes. After a parade around the deck before the crew which was drawn up at general muster, the King summoned his court and embarked upon his eight-hour task of sentencing and directing the carrying out of punishment. A battery of photographers with the Hoover party recorded the proceedings for the entertainment of those back home and for posterity.

Miss Ruth Fessler of Washington, Secretary to Mrs. Hoover, who is also a shellback, was given the task of naming the royal baby who was impersonated by C. H. Chiaramonte of San Pedro, Calif., a squat big-chested boxer-wrestler and football player of the Maryland crew.

H. T. Sears of New York and an electrician's mate, played Queen Amphitrite. E. S. Tesar of Baltimore was in the role of King with C. A. Fulham of San Pedro, Royal Admiral, and F. N. Beckel of Philadelphia, Royal Navigator.

Means of Punishment

The high spot of the whole ceremony was the throwing of each candidate into a tank on the forecastle deck after he had been shaved by the royal barber. Before that divers punishments had been meted out, including the swallowing of horrible

Officer Hal Roberts Injured on Highway

State Highway Officer Hal Roberts of this city was the victim of a painful accident yesterday afternoon about 4:30 as he was returning to Dixon from Sterling, where he had been on duty at the Dixon-Sterling high school football game. He was riding his motorcycle with the side car attached, when one of the bars connecting the side car came loose and dropped. He was riding near the edge of the paving and was thrown off the cement on the shoulder.

He struck the shoulder of the highway, landing on his right shoulder, snapping the collar bone on the right side and sustaining concussion of the brain. Clarence Heckman, local Dodge dealer, was returning home on the Lincoln Highway and witnessed the accident. He took Officer Roberts in his car and hurried him to his home at 803 East Chamberlain street, where a physician attended him. This morning he submitted to a thorough X-ray examination and was removed to his home where he will be confined for some time. He had not recovered from the concussion at noon sufficiently to recall how the accident happened, but aside from the fracture, which was to be placed in a plaster cast this afternoon, was recovering slowly.

Scarboro Store is Robbed Wednesday

A bold thief entered the postoffice and store conducted by John H. Grove at Scarboro Wednesday evening and rifled the cash drawer leaving with more than $50 in change. Entrance was gained by breaking glass in a basement window and then forcing the lock on a door leading into the main store. The postoffice department was undisturbed and the money was taken from the cash register, which was open.

Mr. Grove had closed the store about 5:20 to go to his supper and returned about an hour later. There were a number of persons in front of the store and in a garage nearby during the time, but none heard the crash of the pane of glass or saw the robber. It was evident, however, that the thief left in a hurry for he did not disturb paper bills which were in the cash register and scattered dimes about in his haste to leave the building.

Sheriff Ward Miller was notified and went to Scarboro yesterday morning and conducted an investigation. It was reported that finger prints had been found which might be used in apprehending the thief.

Wall Street

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Ten per cent call money, making its first appearance since Oct. 1, coupled with a bad break in Canadian Macmillan and the New York Curb market, forced a sharp reaction in prices on the New York Exchange this afternoon after an early outburst of bullish enthusiasm had carried more than a score of issues to new high records. Early gains, which ran from $5 to $15 a share in a number of issues, were cut down, or wiped out, and in several instances replaced by losses which ranged from $5 to nearly $20 a share.

tasting pills, having the mouth washed out with a bitter tasting liquid, having oil of graphite rubbed in the hair and other forms of discomfort such as appearing in stocks or taking part in a chain gang.

The ceremonies began late yesterday with the appearance on ship of Davy Jones as herald for King Neptune.

He brought aboard subpoenas duly signed and sealed for all polygyny, sailors and marines and all members of the Hoover party. The ship's company was drawn up on the quarter deck as Davy Jones, played by J. R. Dennis of Alexandria, Va., a chief boatswain's mate, appeared in pirate's garb. He announced to Captain Victor A. Kimberly that he came as a royal herald from "his royal majesty Neptune, Rex," and would take charge of the ship to determine the worthiness of the polygyny and landlubbers to enter Neptune's domain.

Davy Jones was presented to President-elect Hoover and Mrs. Hoover who sat with the Captain. As he shook hands with each of them, he made a low bow and a wide flourish with his black, cocked hat. To the President-elect, he said:

"Welcome Hoover."

"Welcome Hoover, I welcome you here, and I also welcome Mrs. Hoover."

Davy Jones then climbed to the top of a ventilator and unrolled a vellum scroll on the back of which was painted a white skull and cross bones, and on the front a proclamation to the ship's company from King Neptune. The proclamation welcomed the Maryland's return to Neptune's realm.

ARM SWOLLEN TO TWICE ITS NATURAL SIZE

Amboy Lady in Misery Years With Rheumatism; Says Gly-Cas Almost Like Magic.

Possibly never before has a medicine received such widespread and sincere praise as is now being accorded this amazing new medical discovery, Gly-Cas, all over Dixon and vicinity. Hundreds of residents in this entire section know from actual experience that Gly-Cas is no more like ordinary medicines than day is like night. Surprising statements continue to be received at the Campbell White Cross Pharmacy. For example, Mrs. Howard Weaver, respected and well-known lady living at Amboy, Ill., near Dixon, said to the Gly-Cas Man:

"I surely have nothing but praise for this Gly-Cas because it absolutely did for me what every medicine had failed to do—authorities, too—in the last 10 or 12 years. For years I had been crippled up with rheumatism in my back and left arm. I could not straighten up and was really hardly able to get around. My arm, from the elbow down, was always numb and had no feeling in it and was swollen to twice its natural size. I just had no use of my left arm at all. But I tell you, it is remarkable the relief that Gly-Cas can accomplish for a suffering person. People who had used this medicine with remarkable results got me to take it. I have used 3 boxes of Gly-Cas and I am now absolutely free of rheumatism. I actually have as good use of my arm as anyone and the awful rheumatic condition in my back is entirely gone. Gly-Cas is almost like magic in the way it relieves a sufferer and I know it has done for me what practically every known medicine had failed to do before."

Gly-Cas sold in Dixon at the Campbell White Cross Pharmacy, Sold Franklin Grove, G. S. Ives; Polo, C. R. Clothier; Ashton, G. R. Charters; Amboy, Aschenbrenner Drug; Compton, W. H. Hills; Rochelle, Barker & Sullivan, and by leading druggists in all surrounding towns.—Adv.

BEPPY WITH MARGOLDS—

LL day the rain is dripping. All day the north wind scolds. And down the street comes Beppy.

A-singing, a-singing. Wetter than a robin. Ragged as a briar. A-singing, a-singing. With her wagon-load of fire. "Margol!—Margol! flower! Buy!—Ullol!—Buy!"

He slacks at every doorway. He looks at every pane. (Where's a buyer for gypsy fire. Burning in the rain?) "Margol!"

A-cooing and a-singing. And a-calling out until There's someone bids him leave a spark.

Upon her window sill. Then rattle goes the crooked cart. And rumble go the wheels. And clump-clump goes the pony With Beppy at his heels.

"Margol!—Margol! flower! Buy!—Ullol!—Buy!"

To every man his separate task. To each man his loss and gain. There's one that barters margolds. A-singing in the rain. "Margol!"

LADIES G. A. R. TO MEET MONDAY
The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Monday evening at 7:30 promptly in G. A. R. hall. Officers are to be elected at this meeting and a good attendance is desired.

MENU for the FAMILY

BREAKFAST — Bananas, cereal cooked with raisins, cream, lamb cutlets with tomato sauce, graham muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Salsify chowder, fruit salad, toasted graham muffins, milk, tea.

DINNER — Rolled flank steak, mashed potatoes, creamed turnips, pickled beets, grape pudding, milk, coffee.

While some families may find this breakfast too hearty others will welcome the extra dish of lamb cutlets with tomato sauce. Choose a crisp cut of lamb and put lean meat with a little fat through the food chopper. Add half the volume in dried bread crumbs. Mix thoroughly and stir in an unbeaten egg. Add milk to make quite moist. Shape into small flat cakes and pan-broil. Serve on a hot platter surrounded by sauce and garnish with parsley. The meat should be chopped and combined with bread crumbs the night before.

Salsify Chowder
Eight roots of salsify, 1-3 cup lentils, 3 potatoes, 2 cups milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 teaspoon celery salt, 1 egg, soda milk crackers.

Scrape salsify and cut in slices crosswise. Drop into cold water to which vinegar has been added to prevent discoloration. Soak lentils over night in cold water to cover. In the morning drain and put into a deep sauce pan. Add 3 cups of cold water and bring to the boiling point. Simmer one hour and add onion finely minced and prepared salsify. Cook, closely covered an hour longer. Add potatoes pared and cut in dice and cook 45 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Add milk, butter and egg slightly beaten with 4 tablespoons cold milk. Season with salt and pepper and celery salt and cook, stirring constantly until egg is set. Do not boil after adding egg. Dip each cracker into cold milk and place in a deep fryer four over chowder and serve.

Women's Dept. at Y Full of Activity

There was much activity at the Y on Monday last. Every class was out in large groups. The girls and women enjoyed bowling, gym, folk-dancing and basket ball. There were 92 active participants.

The director was indeed happy to welcome new members from the Montgomery Ward store. These women are interested in forming a basket-ball team and a good start was made Monday night. The teachers and business girls also have organized into teams. There is great competition expected to develop in these groups. If there are any girls interested who have not yet joined, they are urged to do so shortly.

Folk-dancing is becoming a demand by the Senior group and also the Juniors are much interested in this activity. The Seniors especially, ask for it. It is fine to have girls interested in this splendid form of recreation. There is no other dancing that has the traditions and historical background as has folk-dancing. The costumes create a satisfying atmosphere and each movement has some foundation or symbol.

The women from Sterling numbered ten and each one expressed a deep appreciation for the pool privilege. The local "Y" appreciates the spirit of these women and the fine co-operative feeling that exists between the two associations.

The Women's Department is planning a Poverty Party on December 17th. This will take place the regular time periods. It is hoped every member will be present. Come dressed in your old togs and bring ten cents. A good time is being planned and all you have to do is come and enjoy yourself.

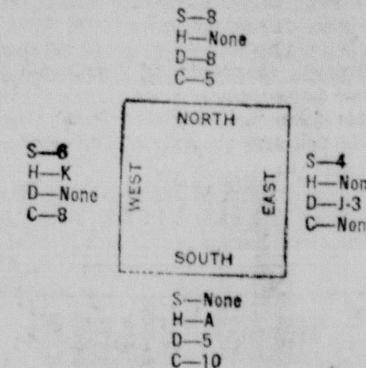

What Is International Golden Rule Sunday?

In the autumn of 1923 an international group of social workers, meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, expressed despair of educating the world to the better day of brotherhood through the customary persuasion of war and diplomacy. Yet the aim was so infinitely to be desired! Could the persuasion of the Golden Rule be made effective? If on an appointed day, say the first Sunday in December, the whole world should sit at a common table, eat bread and salt, think of the hungry and the sorrowing and make a donation for their aid, would not a great advance be made in practical religion?

The idea fired the imagination of the world. Presidents, kings and preachers; the Pope, religious leaders and Patriarchs; powerful financiers, influential statesmen, educators, labor leaders, approved and led friends and followers to a community of thought and feeling such as this old round earth has never known.

BRIDGE PUZZLE

BY FAYAN MATHEY

Diamonds are trumps and South has the lead. North and South must win two of the three tricks, against a perfect defense.

Lay out the cards on a table, as shown in the diagram, and study the situation. See if you can find a method of play that will give North and South two tricks.

THE SOLUTION

This is a case of forcing the opponents' most dangerous trump without destroying your own hand by leading trumps.

South leads the ace of hearts, which North trumps with the eight. If East then discards his spade, North leads the eight of spades. Now East must play one of his trumps. If he plays the three, South overtrumps with the five. If he plays the Jack, South discards his club and wins the final trick with his five of trumps.

If East overtrumps North's eight at the first trick, he must lead either his low trump or the four of spades. If he leads the former, South wins with the five and then takes the ~~Jack~~ trick with the ten of clubs. If he leads the four of spades, North wins it, and South's good trump takes the last trick.

On the third anniversary of International Golden Rule Sunday fifty-three countries united in its observance and contributed to the Near East Relief, orphans who are the foremost beneficiaries. The day falls on December 2 this year.

Standard Bearers Meeting Tuesday

The Queen Esther Standard Bearers had a very interesting meeting Tuesday night. The members and guests sat down at 6:30 to a picnic supper. Little Japanese flags were favors.

After the feast, Alberta Peterson, the president, opened the meeting and the usual business was transacted. Edith Reese, the secretary, gave the minutes. The treasurer's report showed good business. Mrs. Hobbs explained the work to be accomplished in our two fields of work. The members were very enthusiastic over the little jackets to be made. Toys were turned in for Alaska. Sunday is the last day toys can be handed to the president for shipment.

The first chapter of the Home Missionary book was given by Dorothy Jane Dodd. A piano solo was given by Alberta Peterson. Then the president gave the introduction to our Foreign Missionary book. She explained the passports and the points of interest to be visited this year. The Admiral greetings were given by Edith Ayres. Then the climax of the evening was the sketch given by Dorothy Helmick of what she saw in Japan. Remarks were made by Mrs. Willford and Rev. Stephenson. Devotional were led by Mrs. Hobbs. The crowd dispersed to their homes after complimenting the committee on their successful meeting.

HERO OF THE VESTRIS.

Sometimes it seems as if it takes a great tragedy to reveal the fundamental nobility of the human race.

The story of the sinking of the steamer Vestris has not been pleasant reading. But through the dark paragraphs of terror and death there have been bright gleams of courage and fidelity that are worth going far to get.

Michael O'Loughlin, the chief radio operator, made a name that should be remembered for a long time. To understand the nature of his heroism, you must fix in your mind a picture of the situation on the sinking vessel.

The Vestris was lying far over on its side, its decks slanting as steeply as the roof of a house. It was sagging lower in the water every minute, with only waves jarring it deeper as they broke over its nearly submerged bows. The passengers were huddled on deck in life preservers.

In the little cubby-hole of a radio room sat O'Loughlin. Perhaps "sat" isn't the word; the room canted at such an angle that he had to brace his feet against the wall to keep from falling. He knew that at any moment the ship might turn completely over, or slide down into the depths without warning. To be cooped up inside under such circumstances hardly could have been pleasant.

But there sat O'Loughlin, keeping in his hand the little key that was the steamer's sole contact with the rest of the world. Hour after hour he stayed there, ticking out the signals that were bringing help across the hostile sea. Lower and lower the ship settled; at last the life boats slid down the slanting side. Still O'Loughlin stuck, guiding the rescue ships to the scene. The power generators were flooded, and he had to send his signals on the emergency coil, but he kept at it.

The scientists are fond of telling us that we are ruled by fundamental instincts which cannot possibly be broken. The strongest of these, they say, is the instinct of self-preservation. Oh, how they libel the race!

Self-preservation! O'Loughlin could easily have left his post after once making sure that help was on the way. He could have stepped outside, made his way to a lifeboat or raft, strapped a life belt about his waist and made sure of his own safety. No one could have blamed him for refusing to die like a drowning rat in a sinking cage. But—he didn't.

Things like that happen often then we realize. An ordinary, undistinguished man finds himself to face with terror and death; and, without any flourish or heroics, he calmly ignores them and does the duty that presents itself. He may die as a result; yet the blindest materialist alive must admit that such a man has eternally conquered death. He has proved that it cannot frighten him; and the aspirations of the race are thereby vindicated.

A woman in Evanston, Ill., defied the jinx, walked under a ladder and it fell on her head. But probably her feminine "intuition" told her it was going to happen just like that, and she walked under the ladder just to test the premonition.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Thanksgiving night the Tines said, "We're surely glad to go to bed. The turkey we have eaten simply filled us to the top. We're all as tired as we can be." The hunter shouted, "Look at me! Why, I have eaten so much food, I feel that I will drop."

"Come on now, we are wasting time. Beneath the covers we'd best climb. We all will have a good night's rest and feel tip-top once more." He led the Tines off to bed, and when their little prayers were said, they dropped deep into slumber and began to loudly snore.

All through the night they slept real sound, and when the next day rolled around, the hunter called them from their beds to eat some oats and cream. As Clowdy dressed he laughed and said, "I'm glad that I am out of bed. All through the night I tossed around and had a crazy dream."

"Why, so did I", another cried. "It seemed that I was trying to hide away from some big turkey that was nipping at my nose." "That's 'cause you ate so much, I guess", the hunter said. "I must confess that I, too, had a dream, and quite a queer one, goodness knows."

By now the morning meal was through. The next thing that the Tines knew, the hunter took them to the woods, and started looking 'round. They wondered what 'twas all about. Then suddenly they heard him shout, "Ah, look here, little Tynimites! A buggy I have found!"

And, sure enough, 'twas there to see. A buggy, old as it could be. The hunter shouted, "Help me take these wheels off, if you please." "All right", cried Scouty. "But what for?" "Oh, I've a big surprise in store", replied the friendly hunter. Soon the wheels came off with ease.

The big surprise comes in the next story.

DIXON DEFEATED IN CLOSING GAME OF POOR SEASON

Sterling Was Victorious in Turkey Day Game by
Score of 19-7

Two mediocre football teams representing the Dixon and Sterling high schools, struggled along on a somewhat slippery field at Sterling yesterday afternoon in the annual classic which marks the close of the season for both schools, and Sterling emerged the victor by a score of 19 to 7. The winning team, which presented a green lineup on the north side athletic field early in the season from which Dixon was able to wrestle their only victory of the season, showed wonderful improvement.

Both lines were ragged and full of holes. Repeatedly Dixon broke through and blocked Sterling's punts but was helpless after this. On the other hand, Sterling found huge holes in the Dixon line when they charged for gains which were numerous and for good distances. Schuneman was by far the outstanding star of the afternoon for Sterling and it was he who carried the ball on all of the three touchdowns scored against Dixon.

Big Crowd Present
Both sides of the Community Park field were crowded with spectators who chose the game as an afternoon's entertainment. In the first quarter, Dixon presented as good an appearance as at any time during the afternoon. There was a sign of eagerness to win the game and both teams appeared cautious and played accordingly. This lasted for the first 15 minutes of play and when the game went into the second quarter, Sterling then increased their battling power.

Sterling opened up a line attack against Dixon with telling effect and with criss-cross plays sent the ball down to Dixon's ten yard line. Dixon's line had been holding well, but here it crumbled. On a criss-cross around the right end, the Sterling player fumbled the ball, but recovered and crossed the Dixon goal for the first touchdown and then kicked goal for the extra point, starting off the scoring, 7 to 0.

Bad Third Quarter
In the third quarter Sterling crossed Dixon's goal line twice. At one point, Schuneman was given the ball in the center of the field and raced almost 50 yards with 21 players and the officials trailing him for a touchdown. In the final quarter, when it was apparent that the Sterling line would not permit long gains and a half dozen substitutes had been sent in by Sterling, Dixon opened up a passing game in a futile attempt to score. Daniels grabbed a nice toss from Teeter which gained good yardage and brought the ball to within a few feet of Sterling's goal. Line bucks were resorted to and the ball was carried over Teeter, then drop-kicked for the extra point, and the score stood 19 to 7 in Sterling's favor as the gun was fired closing the ragged contest.

Closed Poor Season
The game closed the 1928 Rock River conference schedule in which Dixon won but one game. With 74 candidates reporting for trials at the opening of football practice and with four teams, it was everything but a successful year for the heavyweights, or first team representing the Dixon high schools. There was an abundance of material as was admitted by those in charge of this branch of popular athletics, but with four men working to shape a team, their efforts were without success.

Local fans realized early in the season that Coach Bowers had lost several of his most dependable men by graduation, but there appeared to be a wealth of willing talent to fill in. The result was that Dixon, the largest city in the Rock River conference, was defeated by every one of the smaller towns where there were sufficient candidates to compete but one team. Other schools in the conference also lost heavily through graduation, but the spirit was maintained even though a new team was practically organized.

A championship team for Dixon was not a prospect at the beginning of the season, but with a fine new high school rapidly growing into reality on the north side adjoining the athletic field, it is hoped that this beautiful and costly institution will be better represented next season.

News From Grid Camps of Large Schools of West

Chicago, Nov. 30—(AP)—Football's wane song in the midwest was like the weather yesterday—dreary—as six elevens laid aside their moleskins for another year.

All six, because of an eccentric weatherman, wound up their schedules in snowstorms. The teams that closed their season were Drake, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, Iowa State, Great Lakes and Fort Sheridan.

Nebraska wallowed through a fog of falling snow to the championship of the Big Six by downing the Kansas Aggies 8 to 0 in a game characterized mostly by defensive play. The Great Lakes gridders steered their way to a victory over the Fort Sheridan team on Soldier Field, Chicago. Locating the Army's goal line for 19 points through a fall of snow that melted almost as soon as it touched the ground, the Navy walked off with a 19 to 7 victory, earning also a 30 day home leave for the holidays.

At Omaha, the Missouri Valley Conference title was decided when Drake University turned back Creighton University 6 to 0 in another game played in a blizzard. Fifteen thousand shivered through a bitterly fought contest between Marquette and Iowa State at Milwaukee where the Cyclones bowed to the Wisconsin eleven 6 to 0. The loss ended the season for Iowa State but Marquette has a post-season game with Creighton December 8. The game will be played at Milwaukee.

New York, Nov. 30—(AP)—Five of the country's seven major football championships have been decided. Only the east and south still are in the doubtful stage and the chances are that both will remain that way even after all the returns are in.

Illinois captured the Western Conference title last Saturday on the same day that Southern California won the crown on the Pacific coast, but the other three conference winners waited until Thanksgiving Day to make their titles clear.

A driving snowstorm at Lincoln, Neb. made good football next to impossible but the Cornhuskers of the University of Nebraska scored an 8 to 0 victory over the Kansas Aggies and won the "Big Six" championship. Nebraska finished its conference schedule undefeated. By turning back Missouri's Tigers, 14 to 0, Oklahoma finished in a tie for runner-up position with the Tigers.

The Utah Redskins clinched the Rocky Mountain Conference title by defeating the Utah Aggies, 20 to 0. Forty-five thousand persons, the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in Texas, watched the Texas University Longhorns win the Southwestern Conference championship by defeating their old rivals, Texas A. and M., 19 to 0.

A touchdown scored in the closing minutes of play gave Drake a 6-0 triumph over Creighton and the title in the reorganized Missouri Valley Conference.

New York University's crushing defeat by the Oregon Aggies muddled up the championship situation in the east more than ever, but in the Southern Conference only Georgia Tech and Florida are in a position to broadcast any loud titular claims. Tech crushed Auburn, 51 to 0, while Florida was rolling up a 60 to 6 tally on Washington and Lee.

The eastern titular race may be clarified somewhat tomorrow when Boston College plays Holy Cross; Army meets Stanford; and Georgetown meets Detroit, an undefeated aggregation.

CORNHUSKERS WON "BIG SIX" LOOP HONORS

Nebraska Best Team
in Conference: Defeat
Kansas Thursday

Kansas City, Nov. 30—(AP)—Though held to the smallest conference score of the season, the University of Nebraska succeeded in turning back the threatening Kansas Aggies at Lincoln yesterday in the snow, and won the first Big Six conference football championship. The Huskers won 8 to 0 to finish the conference season undefeated.

Oklahoma upset Missouri at Norman 14 to 0 to go into a second place tie with the Missouri Tigers. Each team won three games and lost two. Iowa State wound up by losing 0 to 6 to Marquette in a non-conference game.

The conference season was featured by Nebraska's stellar play, the Cornhuskers being scored on only once in conference, and until their reversal by the Army figured in the national highlight.

New conference game attendance figures were chalked up at the Missouri-Nebraska game in Lincoln, and the Missouri-Kansas game in Columbus.

(Points include non-conference games).
Co-captain Blue Howell of Nebraska was the leading conference scorer with 54 points, made by 9 touchdowns in 9 games. Clair Sloan of Nebraska finished second with 45 points. Bus Haskins of Oklahoma was third with 37 points, Mills of Oklahoma fourth with 32, and Mehrie of Missouri fifth with 30 points.

All-Conference Honors
Nebraska, which has never lacked of football stars, produced a banner crop of players this year and snared the lion's share of honors on the 1928 Big Six all-conference team chosen by The Associated Press with the cooperation of conference coaches, athletic directors, officials and sport writers.

Seven Cornhuskers were named on the first team and three additional players on the second team. The Huskers bowed over all conference opposition and defeated Syracuse and Montana State, tied Pittsburgh and lost only to the Army.

The Missouri Tigers, who shared second place honors with Oklahoma in the conference final standings, placed two men on the first team while Oklahoma and the Kansas Aggies landed one each. Every conference member gained recognition on the second team. Besides Nebraska's three places, Iowa State won three, Kansas two, Missouri one, Oklahoma one, and the Kansas Aggies one.

Elmer Holm, co-captain with Blue Howell at Nebraska, was named first team captain, and Lindblom, Iowa State's captain, who narrowly missed first team honors, heads the second team.

Unanimous Choice
Blue Howell, Nebraska fullback, and the conference's leading scorer, was a unanimous choice of the critics. He has received some mention for all-American honors, though he was somewhat overshadowed in late season by Clair Sloan, Nebraska's triple-threat ace.

Ted James, Dan McMullen and Elmer Holm, all seniors were outstanding choice for line positions. The selections:

FINAL REPORT OF HOOVER AS COMMERCE SEC.

Made Public by Department Today: Review of Year's Activity

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover's last official pronouncement as a servant of the government before his election as President was made public today in the form of the annual report of the Commerce Department for the fiscal year 1923, which closed last June 30.

The document's key-note stressed "the remarkable continuity of the prosperity of the United States during recent years and its prevailing upward trend." In the foreword, usually the Secretary's own production, the steadiness of prices, the improvements in transportation, and the phenomena of finance were treated while agriculture was given a special study.

"Viewing the agricultural situation as a whole, no very marked difference appears between conditions in the fiscal year 1922-23 and the preceding fiscal year," Mr. Hoover's section said. "The crops harvested in the autumn of 1922 were in the aggregate of approximately the same magnitude as those of 1922 and larger than in any previous year except 1915 and 1920."

"It is true that the increase in agricultural production both over a long period of time and during recent years has been decidedly less rapid than that in the production of manufactured and mineral products. The demand for farm products, which are for the most part necessities of life, tends to increase little if any more rapidly than population. On the other hand, there is practically no limit to the demand for manufactured commodities, many of which are in the nature of semi-luxuries. Even if the need for one type is fully met, new and more highly elaborated articles are constantly coming into use with the advancing standards of living and of the equipment for production."

Building Upgrade

Turning to another field, the report remarked that "during the past seven or eight years, the amount of construction (of buildings) in the United States has been unparalleled in the history of this or any other important country."

"This high activity reflects both expansion of the equipment of industry and commerce," Mr. Hoover's report said after giving the figures of the continuation, "and marked improvement in the quality of that equipment, and, above all, in the quality of the homes of the people."

Railroads were said to "have continued to furnish adequate and efficient service and to enjoy large traffic and revenues."

"The betterment of railway service has been the result of effort on the part of railway companies themselves," it was added, "and of cooperation on the part of shippers and receivers of merchandise. The railway companies have improved their roadbeds and equipment. The cooperation of business men has been particularly conspicuous in the form of regional advisory boards of the American Railway Association.

Analyzing the movement of gold to Europe, with the fluctuating reserve bank rate that has accompanied it, and the resulting swings in bank deposits, it was said that after making allowance for "the extraordinary volume of trading on the stock exchanges," the situation indicated "a healthy state of business activity."

The country's foreign trade was illustrated by special report sections prepared by Dr. Julius Klein, the department's director in that activity. Canada's emergence as the best customer of the United States, displacing Great Britain from a long held post, was noted, and the conclusion was expressed that international exchanges for the year had brought about "very heavy new investments of American capital in foreign countries."

Expansion in the export of manufactured goods. Dr. Klein said, in presenting a study prepared with the assistance of E. Dana Durand of the foreign trade statistics section, was the most remarkable fact disclosed.

Efficiency Bears Fruit

"The efficiency of American production, the vigorous efforts of American business men, in finding markets, and the active aid in promoting trade," the report declared, "have borne fruit which must furnish satisfaction to all classes of our people."

Notwithstanding the exceptionally self-sufficient position of the United States, our high standards of living demand the import of a number of important and many minor commodities which the country itself cannot produce.

"The task of finding foreign markets for American products has met with noteworthy measure of success."

W. P. McCracken, assistant secretary for aeronautics, declared in an accompanying report that there had been "phenomenal progress in every phase of the industry" during the year. He remarked "unprecedented increase in air transport service alone," which had resulted in increasing the regularly flown air route mileage in the country from 8,396 miles to 11,191. Railroad interest in the field had brought about cooperation, and the development of betterments had made more usable machines available.

"Commercial aeronautics is no longer on the threshold," he concluded. "It has entered the business world, and without subsidy, has become an integral part of American industry and transportation. There is every indication of still greater growth during the ensuing biennial period."

Three-Fourths Corn Crop is Now Husked

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Three fourths of Illinois' corn crop has been husked, the weather bureau crop bulletin said here today.

"There was no appreciable precipitation the week ending Tuesday," the bulletin said, "and the weather was excellent for corn husking but muddy fields delayed the work in some sections. Winter wheat continues in good condition. The cold weather of the season thus far occurred on Sunday."

MONSTER PLANE BEING ERECTED BY GERMAN CO.

Airplane With Wings
Spanning 164 Feet
for Ocean Flight

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Nov. 28.—(AP)—While the merits and drawbacks of the Graf Zeppelin are being discussed, the Dornier Construction Works on the Lake of Constance, an affiliate of the Zeppelin Works, are quietly completing a superplane for trans-Atlantic service.

This new plane is not intended as an actual enlargement of the Dornier Superwals, but rather as a revolutionizing type with which it is hoped to solve the question whether the airship or the airplane is to be the trans-oceanic conveyance of the future.

The body of this plane is not a boat but a substantially constructed ship fit to weather the most tempestuous ocean waves when it may be found necessary to go down on the water. It is built with massive walls and the interior is divided into a series of watertight bulkheads to prevent the entire ship from being flooded in case water is shipped. The hull is furnished with a keel to steady the ship in a high sea. Its bow is surmounted by a coming-tower comprising the captain's bridge and pilot's cage, a chart and navigation room and a wireless cabin. The span of wings measures 164 feet. Twelve motors arranged in tandem formation, six in front and six behind the wings, will supply a motor energy totalling 6,000 horsepower. The crew will comprise a captain, two pilots, two wireless operators, one navigation officer, two mechanics and two stewards. There will be room for 50 passengers and for 20 tons of freight. With its full cargo the vessel will weigh 45 tons. Its maximum speed will be 118 miles an hour and it will have a flying radius of 1,800 miles. Over the wings an emergency deck has been erected and between these two surfaces the 12 motors will be mounted.

SEZZIND SIONTHI

Q—Does a life sentence to the penitentiary in Illinois mean life, or does it mean "just a few years" under the present law? I have heard the criminal laws of Illinois criticized severely. The inference is that criminals always get the break.

—C. D. Waukegan.

A—"Life" under past practice, it would seem, in Illinois has in reality meant a few years in—then out. Hinton G. Clabaugh, chairman of the pardon and parole board, who has pointed to many of the weaknesses in the Illinois system, recently gave out figures to show that there are more than 800 convicts in Illinois prison sent there for murder. Out of the 800 only one has served more than twenty-five years. Only fifteen have served twenty years or more. It has been the practice in Illinois to release all "life" prisoners in twenty years unless exceptional conditions surrounded the case.

TURKEY'S GRAND OLD MAN SEEKS TWELFTH WIFE

154 Year Old, Wants Younger Wife, He Tells Papers

Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Turkey's "Grand Old Man," 154-year-old Zaro Agha, has unwittingly roused the ire of the British Foreign Office. Some time ago he expressed to the Constantinople press his desire to divorce his eleventh wife and to marry a twelfth, younger and prettier, preferably an American or English girl.

Recently the British Consul General here received a letter from England saying: "Sir, in response to your advertisement, I should like to apply for the position of your wife. Hoping for a prompt and favorable reply, etc."

His Majesty's Consul General dismissed the letter as a practical joke, but discovered that the British embassy here had also received fifteen similar letters. The mystery was cleared when it was discovered that a London newspaper had played up old Zaro Agha's matrimonial desires as a definite advertisement for an English wife, and had inserted the notice.

"Candidates should apply through His Majesty's embassy or consulate at Constantinople."

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle — Rochelle's municipal club house at Spring Lake is rapidly taking on a finished appearance and was used by the public for the first time on Thanksgiving Day when the Merry Makers Club leased the kitchen and dining rooms on the first floor for the dinner hour.

On the first floor will also be found the heating plant, an American radiator red jacket boiler and a compact conveyor system coal elevator coal bin. On the east is the roller rink and dancing pavilion not as yet completed. The grounds and bluff to the east will be landscaped in the spring.

A parlor and rest room is to be found on the second floor. The Woman's Club has donated new furniture and the arts club a center table. A dinner club purchased and made the drapes. An in-a-door bed furnishes lodging for the custodian, S. I. Barton, at night.

On the third floor are to be found separate shower and toilet rooms.

now complete with the exception of shower curtains which are being painted. Entrance to the club house is from Main street via a board walk.

With the improvements completed and contemplated the Spring Lake resort will without a doubt eclipse or equal any of its kind in this section and reflects a great deal of credit on the city dads, and D. W. Taylor and J. A. Herrmann in particular.

The Mary Monroe Service Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. George N. Grieve December 10th, instead of on December 3rd as originally planned. Mrs. Albert Kingman is leader and Mrs. Howard Cooper will lead the devotions. The members will make candy for the bazaar and sell it from their booth.

The programs for the balance of the year as announced are: January 7—Hostess, Mrs. C. E. Kepner. Leader Mrs. F. Louise Pierce. Devotions, Mrs. A. M. Guhl. February 4—Hostess, Mrs. C. H. Schaller. Leader, Mrs. A. L. Fogle. Devotions, Miss Blanche Squier. March 4—Hostess, Mrs. Arthur Guest. Leader, Mrs. L. S. Bair. Devotions, Mrs. Harvey Phelps. April 1—Hostess, Mrs. Walter Klewin. Leader, Mrs. Roland Conry. Devotions, Mrs. John Russell. Among those attending the Shrine ceremonial in Rockford Tuesday evening were Clarence Anderson, E. W. Taylor, W. F. Vierke, and M. K. Hoks.

The Service Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. James Sherlock.

The annual charity ball of the Service Club will be held in the Woodman Hall on Friday evening, December 28. An orchestra from Dixon will furnish the music.

Good Thoughts for Good People

That to which we direct our thoughts is the commanding influence in our lives. Do we think most of God or of mammon? We serve that to which our thoughts are directed. How all-important it becomes, then, to make sure that our highest desire, our most earnest wish, and our greatest effort are to lay hold of and manifest good.

THANKSGIVING IS ACT RATHER THAN MERE SENTIMENT

Theme of Sermon Yesterday at Union Church Service

The union Thanksgiving day services were held at the Church of the Brethren, the pastor, Rev. Bruce C. Whitmore presiding. The service opened by the congregation singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy." The church was well filled with a very appreciative audience. J. C. Koller of the Y. M. C. A. read President Coolidge's proclamation. Rev. W. W. Marshall announced that the offering was in behalf of the charity work of the Dixon Public Hospital and led the offertory prayer. Mrs. Melvin Burgard and Miss Viola Bowers sang a very charming duet. The Thanksgiving Scriptures were read by the Rev. B. H. Cleaver, who also gave the prayer, in the absence of Dr. Young, unavoidably absent. Rev. Frank Brandellner sang, "I have a Wonderful Saviour." The Thanksgiving Day sermon was by the Rev. Lloyd W. Walter, who took for his text, the message of Paul in II Cor. 9:15. "Thanks be to God for His Unspeakeable Gift."

He said:—"You cannot understand this verse until you have studied the preceding portion of this chapter. Paul was appealing for aid for the distressed Church of Jerusalem. In that city there was dire suffering and need. The young Christian church was being persecuted more by the Jews than the Romans. They were cut off from making a living because of this persecution and Paul was asking gifts to meet their needs from their richer brethren in the city of Corinth. These people loved God and Paul is exhorting them to show their love by their gifts. Paul was a wonderful example of God's Love, being arrested by it on the Damascus Road. He was a keen man, logical, and yet sentimental as shown by that beautiful eulogy of love in I Cor. 13. But here he shows the need of applied Christianity. It must be practical and profession and conduct cannot be di-forced. Thanksgiving is an act and not a sentiment alone. And it is in harmony with Paul's appeal. It is not saying thanks but giving thanks that counts. Thanksgiving is applied Christian living. It is not a duty nor a burden but a pleasure. It does not become irksome but always remains a joy and delight. We give gladly and gratefully and sentiment prompts the gift.

Then there is the Thanksgiving at Jerusalem which is brought about by the reception of the gifts of the Corinthian Church. It proves to the parent church that distance is really no separation, and they appropriate the gifts with the thanksgiving in their hearts. They know that the strong to help has released the will into action. It is difficult thing to give God thanks in a year of plenty. It is easier to render God thanks when the cup is almost drained. Words face to face with the donor of the gifts sometimes fail us, and sometimes in their absence the flow of gratitude comes more freely. Abundant harvests do not always the softening of the heart towards God. We are not changed by the outward bounties of God, but the Un-speakable Gift in the Person of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ breaks down the hard stubborn will. Thanksgiving in the heart is not brought about by Presidential Proclamation, or by legal enactment, nor by large family reunions, pleasant though these may be.

Nor does a bountiful spread table bring it to pass but when Jesus comes into the heart there is released a boundless supply of gratitude from an inexhaustible fountain in the Grace of God. We are made unselfish stewards of our lives and we express in our conduct the atmosphere of praise because of our intimacy with the Christ of God. We joy and delight in Him with whom we are privileged to walk and to us comes new life, vision and peace that passeth knowledge, an abiding blessing only made possible because lives have been transformed by God's Unspeakable Gift. All good Christians should be true patriots and God's blessing and Thanksgiving in the Home helps us to build the Kingdom of God. Let us then in word and act unite in thanksgiving to God."

After prayer by Rev. L. W. Walter, the congregation united in singing the Doxology and the Rev. A. T. Stephenson closed the splendid service by the benedictory prayer.

TRAVELING MEN'S RALLY IN DIXON SATURDAY NIGHT

Officers of State U. C. T. Will Attend Local Meeting

Secretary C. E. Hill and his committees are working energetically to make the U. C. T. rally to be held Saturday night, in the M. W. A. Hall, a big success. The one hundred and thirty members, with their wives, who reside in Dixon, will be present and will boost for the growth of the organization. Prominent officials of the organization will be present from various parts of the state and will have a place on the program.

The commercial traveler is looked upon, by our citizens and business people, as an authority on all general economic conditions, because of his constant contact with people in all walks of life, many of whom represent the industrial, commercial, and financial elements of this country. Personality, intelligence, information and the constructive spirit of co-operation place him in a most advantageous position. Dixon's commercial travelers assist materially to advertise Dixon. They live in Dixon because they love Dixon and her people, otherwise they would live somewhere else. The larger the growth of this organization the greater advertising medium Dixon has. All commercial travelers and commercial men in the general meaning of the term should unite with the organization. That is the purpose of the rally held Saturday night.

Those Eligible.

Those eligible to the order include white male citizens, from 18 to 60 years of age, of good moral character, physical and mental equipment, who have been actively engaged for six months as manufacturer, wholesale dealer, merchandise broker, house salesman, buyer, auditor, manager, department manager, wholesaler, commercial traveler, city salesman, treasurer, president, vice-president, secretary, truck and accessory salesman, or wholesale bond salesman. The objects of the order are:

To unite fraternally commercial travelers, wholesale salesmen and kindred workers.

To give moral and material aid to members and those dependent upon them; also to assist widows and orphans of dead members.

To establish an indemnity fund for total or partial disability or death resulting from accidents.

To secure just and equitable favors for commercial travelers and wholesale salesmen.

To elevate the moral and social standing of members.

To establish and maintain a secret order.

The financial standing of the order ranks among the highest, with more than $2,000,000 in assets.

Members are protected from total or partial loss of time due to accidents, not exceeding 104 consecutive weeks; partial loss of time not exceeding five weeks.

Widows and Orphans.

The widows and orphans' fund is one of the outstanding features of the order. It was created in 1893 to provide temporary help. It is a benevolent fund and is not a part of the insurance in any way. After a member's death his widow, mother, sister or orphan may be assisted from the fund.

The fund is expended annually between $90,000 and $100,000. This work is being done without cost to members. The fund is supported by a part of the initiation fee and an assessment from the annual council dues and from interest on investments and donations. More than $1,500,000 has been expended to date.

The order was founded at Columbus, Ohio, on January 16, 1888, and was incorporated Sept. 25, 1890. Starting with eight founders, it has had a steady growth to a membership of over 114,000.

The meaning of U. C. T. is divided into a second connotation from United Commercial Travelers. It also means "Unity-Charity-Temperance."

"In Unity there is strength."

"In Charity there is love."

"In Temperance there is peace."

Eureka Students Voted to Walk Out

Eureka, Ill., Nov. 28—(AP)—A strike vote of the 300 students of Eureka College, taken at a mass meeting that ended after midnight, resulted in a decision to walk out of classes until the resignation of Bert Wilson, college president, is accepted by the Board of Trustees.

The vote was nearly unanimous, and it was reported that several members of the faculty attended the meeting and participated in the vote. The action followed the refusal of the trustees yesterday to accept President Wilson's resignation, proffered when under fire from students and alumni.

The dismissal of certain professors popular with the students precipitated the outbreak. The president advised a general curtailment of expenses to remain within the institution's budget if the college is to survive, and the board approved his policy. The removal of the professors resulted.

Thanksgiving holidays began today at the college, and the students voted to return to the city Monday but to remain absent from classes until President Wilson's resignation is accepted. The students made their decision in the face of expected discipline.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Because straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.—St. Matthew 7:14.

Richness expresses of actions what straightness does of lines; there can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.—Herbert Spencer.

S.S.S. and Rheumatism simply don't get along together

You know it cannot be rubbed away

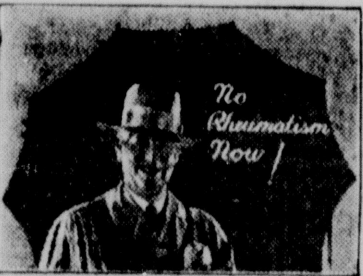

ARE you one of those unfortunate who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, commonly called rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief to thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"After suffering several years, six bottles of S.S.S. completely relieved me of rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep."

"I was very nervous, had hardly any appetite, and suffered with rheumatism. I tried many medicines, but S.S.S. is the one that did me the most good. I am now well, and feel like a new man."—William Osborne, 2406 Sloan Street, Flint, Michigan.

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

BRITTEN ASKED FOR CONFERENCE ON NAVAL POWER

Thinks He has Scheme to Bring Agreement With Britain

Washington, November 28—(AP)—Chairman Britten of the House naval affairs committee, thinks he has a plan that would help the United States and Great Britain to read an understanding on the equality of sea power and naval problems generally. He has put forward his ideas in a cablegram to Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister of England. He suggested members of the House naval affairs committee and a committee from the Parliament hold a joint meeting in Canada after March 4. Equality of sea power between the two countries on all classes of war vessels not affected by the Washington arms conference would be discussed. The committee would report the result of the discussions and recommendations to their governments after the fashion of the inter-parliamentary union.

In a statement Representative Britten said the failure of past limitations conferences had been attributed to military men and that while he personally did not think they were responsible, he would prefer to see both committees composed of non-military men.

He declared this country's naval policy had never been competitive but had always been defensive.

He asserted that England and America should lead the way toward naval limitation and a peaceful understanding on the seas.

Peculiar Mix-up in Gallatin Co.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 28—(AP)—There's no law against it, but a state's attorney defeated for re-election should not accept employment from a person indicted during his term of office.

Neither could the defense attorney who was elected state's attorney, do an about face and prosecute his former client.

This is the way Attorney General Carlstrom has settled a mixup from Gallatin county resulting from the recent election.

Joseph L. Bartley was the defeated state's attorney. Out of a job, he wanted to join the defense of a person who he helped indict. On the other hand, the defense attorney had been elected state's attorney, was in doubt as to whether he should continue the defense or should prosecute.

Answering the first problem, Carlstrom said that while the practice to be followed by the defeated state's attorney had not been determined by any act of legislature or language of the courts, "the propriety of defending a person so charged is doubtful, to say the least." He pointed out that the retiring state's attorney would have knowledge of the evidence upon which the prosecution planned to base its case.

Sufficient answer to the second question was found in a Supreme court opinion, cited in part as follows:

"When an attorney is once retained and has received the confidence of a client he cannot enter the services of those whose interests are adverse to those of his client, no matter how honest his motives and intentions."

Choose His Christmas Ties

for Quality as well as Style and Color

If some of the ladies who buy Christmas Ties for men had to wear them, they'd realize that a tie should have something else to its credit besides good looks. It takes a mighty good constitution to stand the daily pulling and tugging most men give to their ties. If the quality isn't there, style can't take its place.

Our Men's Neckwear is selected for the high quality of the materials as well as for the smart attractive colors and designs.
